CHICAGO. Aug. 25.—A new world's record for consecutive innings played in three consecutive games by two clubs was established heer today when the Chicago White Sox and the Washington Senators battled thirteen innings, the latter winning, 2 to i. Incidentally it was the fourth straight extra inning game played by Chicago, making a total of eighty-nine innings played in six days. On two of the six days double-headers were played.

After one was out in the thirteenth. Williams doubled. McBride hit to Blackburne, who could have tagged Williams, who was running to third, but held the ball too long and McBride beat his throw to first. Johnson, who was the here yesterday, and who replaced Boehling in the twelfth inning when the latter weakened, sent a long foul toward the left field. Liebold made a long run and caught the ball, but his throw to the plate was about ten feet wide, and William scored the winning run.

Up to the twelfth inning, neither club was able to get a man past second and only two men on each club got that far. Score:

Tenth Anniversary With Detroit Team

DETROIT, Mich., Aus. 38.-Tyrus Raymond Cobb, often referred to as the greatest base ball player in the world, today celebrated the tenth anniversary of his debut as a major league player. 18 was expected that Cobb would receive an unusual demonstration-and probably something more substantial- | tle of the year. from his friends this afternoon when he stepped to the plate in the last game of the important series with Boston. Cobb's path of fame has probably never been equalled in the history of base ball. For eight successive seasons he has been champion batsman of the American league. His average for the present season is about .No and it seems almost a human impossibility for any of his rivals to wrest the crown from him this year. No batter has ever made such a record. On August 28, 1905, a tall, nervous apbearing boy of 19 years, from the Augusta, Ga., club in a class "C" donned a Detroit uniform and was sent to center field by Manager Bill Armour to replace Dick Cooley. The player was Cobb; Cooley never got his job back.

Only once in these ten years has Cobb been replaced by a pinch hitter. When he was a youngster, "Doc" White of the Chicago club was his nemula. Catcher Freddic Payne was sent to but for Cobb on this single occasion.

In 1908, his first full season, Cobb hit .330. That has since teen his low mark. Cobb has always played right or con-
